

Diabetes and Metabolism Seminar Series

Type 1 Diabetes and Immunology Symposium

Featuring the 2022 Poll Visiting Scientist Lecture

March 24, 2022, 8 am-12 pm

UW SLU Building F, Room 106 , 750 Republican St. Seattle 98109

Register at: diabetemetabseminars.com (Virtual Option Available)

7:55 Opening Remarks Rebecca Hull-Meichle, PhD

2022 Poll Visiting Scientist Lecture

Carmella Evans-Molina PhD, MS, MD

Professor, Indiana University

Director, Indiana Diabetes Research Center

8:00 The Ailing and Diabetic Beta Cell in Type 1 Diabetes:
Insights from a Trip to the ER

9:00 Discussion and Refreshment Break

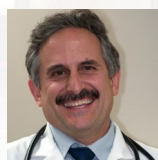

Eddie James, PhD, Assistant Member, Benaroya Research Institute

9:30 Immune Recognition of Unconventional Antigens Formed in Stressed Islets

Daniel Campbell, PhD, Member, Benaroya Research Institute

10:20 Engineering Interleukin-2 for Control of Autoimmunity

William Hagopian, PhD, Director of Diabetes Programs, PNRI

11:10 Combining Type 1 Diabetes Genetic Risk Scores, Genotype-phenotype Scoring and Autoantibody Surveillance into Integrated Prediction Strategies to Prevent DKA and Enable Future Prevention

Poll Lecture Sponsored by Harvey and Judy Poll Visiting Scientist Endowment